

Guidelines for signing the NSW Small Business Stamp Duty Exemption Declaration

What is the NSW small business exemption?

From 1 January 2018, small businesses will be exempt from paying NSW stamp duty on certain types of insurance.

What is a small business?

Revenue NSW states that: *"You are a small business if you are an individual, partnership, company or trust that is carrying on a business, and the business has an aggregated turnover of less than $2million. Aggregated turnover is your annual turnover plus the annual turnovers of any business entities that are your affiliates or are connected with you."

What types of insurance policies are eligible for the exemption?

- Commercial Vehicle Insurance
- Commercial Aviation Insurance
- Occupation Indemnity Insurance (including Professional Indemnity)
- Public and Products Liability Insurance

How to apply for the exemption?

For individuals, company, partnership or trust – to receive the exemption please complete the declaration below that you/your business entity is a small business and return to Scott & Broad Pty Ltd.

Please note:

- The declaration covers all policies issued to you during the financial year ended 30 June 2026.
- If you are uncertain whether you classify as a small business, please speak to your financial adviser.
- Your Insurer will place reliance on your declaration in charging the applicable insurance duty.
- False declarations may result in penalties by Revenue NSW plus the insurance duty not paid and penal interest on that balance.
- Revenue NSW may also be able to clarify your queries relating to the law and your obligations.
